New Books

Space Age Christianity

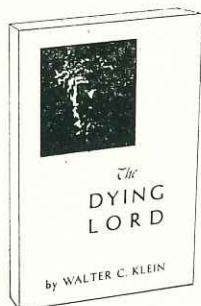

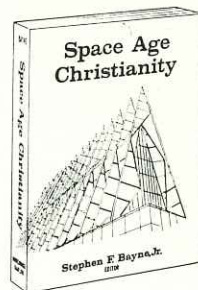

Edited by the Rt. Rev. Stephen F. Bayne, Jr.

Anglican Executive Officer

Foreword by the Rt. Rev. William Fisher Lewis,

Bishop of Olympia

This book is an edited account of the lectures and discussions on Space Age Christianity which took place in August, 1962 at the Seattle World's Fair. The Churchman will learn something of the physical, biological, and social sciences from such outstanding authorities as Dr. William G. Pollard, Dr. Paul Dudley White, and Dr. Milton Yinger. The non-churchgoer will find the perspective in which the theologian views scientific accomplishments. $4.50

The Dying Lord

By the Very Rev. Walter C. Klein

Dean of Nashotah House

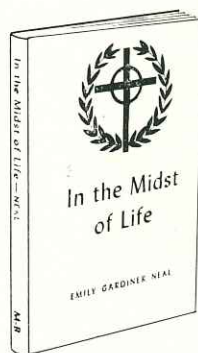

This Lenten book provides the perceptive reader an experience in spiritual growth. Indeed, it is Lenten only in the conventional sense of building its text on the Seven Last Words of our Lord. Dean Klein's original discussion instills into day to day habits of thought and action the living significance of these sayings. It is a helpful book whether in March or August, this year or next. $1.25

In The Midst of Life

By Emily Gardiner Neal

author of A Reporter Finds God Through Spiritual Healing

Mrs. Neal, a noted writer on the subject of spiritual healing in the Episcopal Church, faced two painful problems when her husband died. She not only had to make the sad adjustments every widow must make, but at the same time explain to various friends why her faith in the efficacy of healing had not diminished. Mrs. Neal writes in a popular journalistic style, at times trenchant, at times sensitive, but always understandable. Both men and women will find a lively companionship in this book. $4.50

Saints, Signs and Symbols

By W. Ellwood Post

"This book contains some excellent drawings combined with the most terse descriptive writing possible. It will prove to be a most practical reference work for all those who deal with Church's symbols, and it will add vastly to the information of those who already know much of this science."—Canon West, FOREWORD

A Handbook For Vestrymen

A Lay Vocation in the Service of the Church

By Howard Gordon Clark, D.D.

"If you have been called upon by your fellow parishioners to serve the Church, it is fundamentally important for you to appreciate the nature of the Church. It is unlike any other organization with which you may be associated. In fact, it is not an "organization" at all, but an "organism," for the life of the Holy Ghost moves in and through the Church giving it vitality and direction."—The Author, FOREWORD

A guide for rectors, wardens, and vestrymen on the organization, operation, and responsibilities of a vestry, the relationship of a vestry to the rector, steps to be taken in calling a rector, and comments on some of the legal problems relating to diocesan and national church canons. The appendix contains extracts from the canons of the Episcopal Church of interest to wardens and vestrymen.

FRIENDS, ROMANS, COUNTRYMEN

By Howard Gordon Clark

In the form of conversation between a lapsed Roman Catholic and a priest of the Episcopal Church the author clearly shows the similarities and differences between the two communions, and sets forth the Episcopal Church as a true part of the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church, without the accretions of Romanism or the subtractions of Protestantism. A book for inquirers and Churchmen alike.

On Spiritual Reading

By W. E. Robinson

In this valuable reference book, which clearly fills a gap, Mr. Robinson provides a comprehensive survey of the whole field of spiritual literature from the Desert Fathers to Evelyn Underhill and contemporary writers. He gives clear guidance to those who, recognizing the importance of spiritual readings, are puzzled to know where to begin, and he concludes his book with several practical and practicable reading schemes.

The Report of the Commission on Preparation for Confirmation of the Diocese of New York

Twenty-eight individuals served on the Commission during its three and one-half years of life; composed of two Bishops, one College Professor, one Seminary Professor, one Preparatory School Headmaster, the Dean and a Canon of the Cathedral, seventeen Rectors of Parishes, three Vicars of Missions, and one Associate Director of Religious Education.

Clergymen and laymen in every diocese of the Episcopal Church will be interested in this report.

Contents: History of the Commission; History of Confirmation; What is Confirmation; Validity; Allegiance; Preparation of Children; Preparation of Youth; Preparation of College Students; Preparation of Adults; Methods of Preparation; Caution and Special Attention; Follow Up to Confirmation. $2.50

Scripture and the Faith

By A. G. Hebert, S.S.M.

In Scripture and the Faith, Father Hebert shows why people sometimes have difficulty understanding the Bible: they fail to connect the facts and messages of the Old and New Testaments. For the reader who has never seen the Bible as a whole, it is an invaluable guide; moreover, it will help anybody to grasp the purpose and unity of the Church's scriptures and to use them more effectively both in individual study and in corporate worship. A Selection of the Episcopal Book Club $1.60

The Privilege of Teaching

By Dora P. Chaplin, S.T.D.

The Privilege of Teaching is a book for everyone who teaches the Christian Faith—and all Christians are teachers, whether they realize it or not. The author is Dora P. Chaplin, Associate Professor of Pastoral Theology at General Theological Seminary in New York City, and widely known and respected in the field of religious education. In direct, informal, first-person language, Dr. Chaplin here shares with the reader the fruits of her broad experience in teaching and communicating the Christian Faith to children and adults. $4.50

If I Go Down To Hell

Man's Search for Meaning in Contemporary Life

By Malcolm Boyd

It is the belief of Malcolm Boyd that for many people the experience of "hell" begins here on earth. Loneliness, frustration, lack of purpose, terror, rage and outrage which we have brought on ourselves by the threat of atomic holocaust, by racial discrimination (including the hypocrisy of much Northern racial "acceptance"), and by our various materialisms—these are some of the situations of "hell" which he sketches, with many examples from recent books, drama, movies, and television. $3.75

An Anglican View of The Vatican Council

By Bernard C. Pawley

In the opening chapter, Canon Pawley, personal representative of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York at the Vatican during the preparation for the Second Vatican Council, says: "This book is written not for specialists, but ordinary well-intentioned churchmen, who have begun to respond to God's promptings that Christians of this generation should seek again the unity in Christ which, down through the centuries, has been lost. Enthusiasm can often be fired by information, and information in this case concerns the Second Vatican Council of the Roman Catholic Church, 1962, the motives which have prompted it, the questions it hopes to solve, and the possible effects it may have on Christian Churches in general and upon the world at large."

Strangers No Longer

By Peter Day

Responsible laymen will have the job of making decisions and influencing the decisions of others on questions of Church unity in the years immediately ahead. This book is designed to help them see the issues involved in these decisions clearly and honestly. Nevertheless, the book is not about Church unity; it is about the unity of the Church.

Guide For Lay Readers

New Edition

This is a completely revised edition which will contain in addition to the original material: A Foreword by the Rt. Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger, Presiding Bishop; an entirely new section of Syllabus and Bibliography of Lay Readers' Study Requirements, as required by canons as amended by the 1961 General Convention; a chapter on the history of Lay Readers, by the Rt. Rev. Stephen F. Bayne, Jr. (this will replace the old Appendix II, "Some Historical Data"); and a new Order for the Admission of Lay Readers.

Tithing and the Church's Mission

By Carl R. Sayers and Bertram T. White

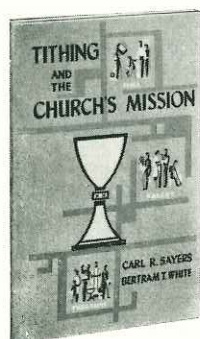

The thesis which the authors expand and elaborate in this book is that giving to the Church is not only sacrificial contributions of money but the unflinching giving of TIME, TALENT, and TREASURE.

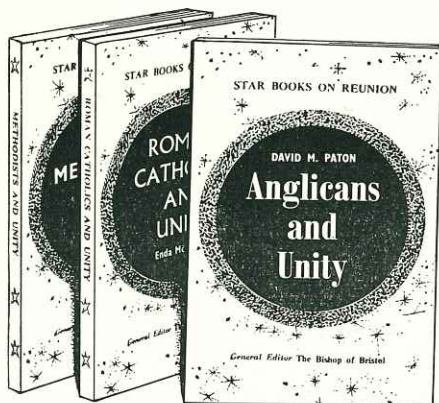

"In one sense we have attempted an exposition of the prayer for the whole state of Christ's Church by means of the theology of stewardship. The chapters are developed along major themes implicit and explicit in the six paragraphs of the offertory prayer. Each chapter commences with a part of the prayer."

"The heart of stewardship lies within eucharistic worship. May these chapters open the hearts of churchmen and citizens to give in Eucharist the tithes and offerings of money they have received for work faithfully done in God's world. May the Church exercise such a responsible stewardship of the people's gifts as to honor Christ and serve men's needs."

The Bishop of Bristol

Anglicans and Unity

By David M. Paton

The author's aim here is to state the sort of questions which ordinary Anglicans as well as bishops and theologians ought to be considering in the general area of "Anglicans and Unity." He has tried to illustrate them both from the way in which the Anglican Communion as a whole is developing from a survey of most of the actual main conversations or negotiations in which various Anglican Churches are now involved.

Baptists and Unity

By L. G. Champion

Here the author, from Baptist Theological College, Bristol, attempts to state clearly and fairly what issues should be occupying the attention of Baptists who are prepared to enter into the ecumenical conversation.

Congregationalists and Unity

By Erik Routley

Another in a series devoted to the examination of principles and distinctions, ways and means, by prominent representatives of different confessions. Dr. Erik Routley, Minister of Augustine-Bristol Congregational Church, Edinburgh, author of the recent book The Story of Congregationalism, is certainly well qualified to write this provocative analysis of Congregationalists and Unity.

Roman Catholics and Unity

By Enda McDonagh

This book is an attempt to understand the background of ecumenical phenomenon. It desires to show that it is more than a fashion and urgently relevant to an effective Christian approach to the problems of communism, nuclear war, hunger, and population—all in the light of the basic beliefs of the author, which are Roman Catholic.

Methodists and Unity

By Rupert E. Davies

The author, Tutor at Didsbury Theological College, Bristol, displays, in this one-in-a-series-of-books-on-reunion, a deep concern about Christian unity. Also of interest, the author reflects on: What Methodists dislike about the Church of England and What Anglicans may dislike about Methodism.

Presbyterians and Unity

By J. K. S. Reid

Dr Reid, a noted Presbyterian theologian, is Professor of Christian Dogmatics in the University of Aberdeen. In Presbyterians and Unity Dr. Reid relates attitudes chiefly about one Presbyterian Church and Unity. However, though he speaks of his own views, he speaks for others concerning Presbyterianism and unity too.

The Archbishop of Canterbury's Lent Book —

GROUND OF THE HEART

A Commentary on the General Thanksgiving

By W.W.S. March

Vicar of Eastbourne, Canon of Chichester

Foreword by the Archbishop of Canterbury

When in the parable the younger son at last returned home, he found his father running out to meet him. Very probably he burst into tears. He was also deeply thankful. That combination of sorrow with thankfulness is a symbol of Christian experience. To be human is to be immersed in sorrow of every sort. To be a Christian is at the same time to be returning home, and therefore to be thankful.

THE COMPASSION OF GOD AND THE PASSION OF CHRIST

By Eric Abbott

Dean of Westminster

In this "Scriptural Meditation for the Weeks of Lent," to be read and pondered often, the basic tenets of the Christian creed are expressed with great force, simplicity and logic. Through Christ we are more than saved if we accept the sacrifice as made for us and we become one with God as Christ Himself was God's son.

The Power of His Resurrection

By E. K. Ellis

The Resurrection of Jesus must be accepted as an historical event, attested not only by the New Testament but also by a great weight of collateral evidence—the birth, growth, and continuing life of the Church, the witness of saints and martyrs, the day-to-day experience of countless believing Christians. The Biblical accounts, from the discovery of the Empty Tomb to the Ascension, are seen in the context of the results which have followed from the event; and the event itself is seen as God's answer to all human problems.

Born of the Virgin Mary

By A. Lancashire

This is an unusual book on a subject largely neglected by Anglican theologians. First the author outlines the Biblical history of God's saving activity towards man in Christ. He then discusses the Biblical witness to Mary's role within this history and indicates the direction in which this witness has developed in the continual meditation of the Church upon God's redemption in Christ. Finally he examines recent criticisms of Mariology made by various Protestant scholars and assesses the true place of Mary in the mystery of the Incarnation.

The Burning-Glass

By Fr. Hugh, S.S.F.

The theme of this book is that the Eucharist is neither something we attend, nor something we simply do: rather, thanks to its inherent form and the presence of Christ within it, it is active and purposeful. It is doing something in the world. Like a burning-glass, it gathers, to concentrate, focus, and enkindle; but therefore it can be used only to magnify and reveal, like a reading glass.

Six Studies in the Anglican Tradition

By Charles Smyth

Based on a series of articles for Lent written for the Church Times, this book shows the various ways in which English men and women, through the centuries, have sought God and served Him. The importance of this book for American Churchmen is that its history of religious movements in the Church of England is in large measure our history too.

Agenda For Anglicans

By Dewi Morgan

What is the Anglican Communion? How does it hold in balance the twin principles of freedom and authority? What holds together this large and growing group of national Churches in communion with Canterbury? What is its special mission in the Christian world today? Where does it go from here? These are some of the many important questions with which the author deals in this important book.

When Thou Hadst Overcome

Devotional essays on the Passion of Christ

By H. J. Hammerton

'When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers'. On the basis of this well-known and oft-repeated sentence, the author of these Lenten essays considers the many 'sharpnesses' which our Lord had to overcome before he could open the Kingdom of Heaven.

About Christ

By William Temple

This book contains lectures which Archbishop Temple gave to students in 1921 and 1925. He assumed that they wanted to ponder deeply how Christ's revelation can be universal, and how it can reveal the eternal God. The present Archbishop of York says, "These lectures are still alive and completely relevant." $1.30

Five Makers of the New Testament

By Donald Coggan

A new paperback from England in which the Archbishop of York says: "... we cannot do enough to help those people, clerical and lay, who week by week, in pulpit and in classes of various kinds, set themselves to the task of teaching and evangelism. It is such that I have had in writing this book." Contents: St. Paul, St. Luke, St. John, the Author of the Epistle to the Hebrews, and the Seer of the Revelation. Probable price, 75 cents

New Testament Readings For Lent

Edited by Donald Coggan

The theme is "The Fruit of the Spirit" and the contents include some of the most significant portions of the New Testament text. After introducing the theme during the first few weekdays of Lent, the Archbishop has chosen readings to illustrate, in the first week, Love; in the second, Joy; in the third, Peace; in the fourth, Long-suffering and Gentleness; in the fifth, Goodness and Faithfulness; and finally, Meekness and Self-Control. Probable price, $1.00

Theology and Images

A Critical Examination of Recent Scholarship

By E. L. Mascall

In this penetrating essay, Dr. Mascall describes Bridge's thesis and subjects it to critical analysis and comment, and then goes on to examine the place of images in the liturgical life of the Church.

A Special Book of Menus and Recipes for Fridays, Lent, and Other Days of Abstinence

LOAVES AND FISHES

By Katharine Morrison McClinton

and Julianna Morrison Ashley

Unfortunately many people do not like fish; perhaps this is due to their methods of cooking it. While Lent is a time of abstinence and fasting, there is no reason why we should not enjoy the food we eat, and the main purpose of this book is to give unusual ways of cooking and seasoning the basic foods of Lent—fish, cheese, eggs, vegetables, and fruits. Illustrated.

On Being the Church in the World

By John A. T. Robinson

Bishop of Woolwich

Fifteen essays or addresses are collected in the book to show 'biblical theology' grappling with the hard questions being asked today inside and outside the churches. Few, if any, New Testament scholars display minds so alert to the realities of modern society.

The Gospels

For the Sundays and Principal Holy Days of the Church's Year

By Frank Colquhoun

These sixty studies, covering the liturgical Gospels for 56 Sundays and those for Christmas Day, the Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, and Ascension Day are not mere devotional meanderings, but straightforward expositions of scripture which need to be read with close attention to the text of the Gospel and with the Bible at hand for constant reference.

The Bible in Worship and Ministry

The McMath Lectures,
with other essays on Biblical themes

By R. R. Williams, D.D.

Anglican worship incorporates much Biblical material. The Bishop of Leicester describes and analyses it as 'inspiring our praise,' 'helping our prayers,' and 'informing our minds.' He further considers the influence of this Biblical material as 'guiding our conscience' in moral decisions, and deals with the use of the Bible generally in pastoral ministry.

The Office of a Bishop

By W. Telfer

In this study, Dr. Telfer reviews and appraises the evidence of how the bishop's office originated in the Church, and traces, in the history of later centuries, significant changes and developments in Christian thinking about bishops, their powers and their importance. The conclusions which Dr. Telfer draws are vigorous and unprejudiced.

THE NEW ENGLISH NEW TESTAMENT: AN INTRODUCTION

By C. S. Mann

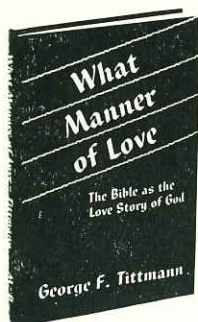

Dr. Mann's book is much more than an account of the problems of translation. It is also a full analysis of those concepts in the New Testament (with some of their roots in the Old) which lie at the foundation of theology and of the Christian faith itself.

"Few of us will agree on the kind of things which we might like to see in a new translation, and it is beyond all human hope that the translation which we now have in our hands will meet with universal applause. But there is good hope that it will be intelligible in a way in which 1611 and 1884 can now never hope to be. We need to have a New Testament in our own idiom, however shortlived that may in the end prove to be. We need it for preaching and teaching. It may confidently be said that such we now have in The New English New Testament." A valuable aid for use with The New English Bible: New Testament.

WHAT MANNER OF LOVE

The Bible as the Love Story of God

By The Rev. George F. Tittmann

"Here is the Love Story of the Bible retold—retold, not as a drama which we enjoy as spectators, but one in which we are, whether we realize it or not, actors on the stage. The profound ultimate mysteries of the Christian faith come alive by way of parables and delightful analogies."—Theodore O. Wedel. $3.75

THE PURPLE HEADED MOUNTAIN

By The Rev. Martin Thornton

Priest of The Oratory of The Good Shepherd

The title of this book is taken from Cecil Frances Alexander's delightful hymn, "All Things Bright and Beautiful."

The main themes of The Purple Headed Mountain are: ascetical doctrine which makes prayer positive and vital, penitence, the Lenten emphasis, and the doctrine of creation so neglected and yet so necessary to true Christian life. $1.00

AN APPROACH TO THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

THE ROUGH YEARS

By Chad Walsh

A novel concerning high school life—high school life not as parents and students wish it were, but as it is. The problems, dilemmas, catastrophies, and hopes of its characters—the same characters that appear in Knock and Enter but 5 years older—are set against the background of Blanton, a city sharply divided by differences of social backgrounds, race, occupation, and education. In the midst of the story is sleepy Trinity Church, trying to wake up and serve all sorts and conditions of men.

KNOCK AND ENTER

By Chad Walsh

The book is designed to give children all the instruction needed in an ordinary Confirmation course and to make it not only interesting but digestible. It is in the form of a novel, and each of the three children who are its main characters has a different attitude toward religion.

This—it goes without saying—should help take Confirmation out of mothballs and make it seem real, exciting, and permanently significant.

A TESTAMENT OF TURNING

By Donet Meynell Roelofs

Foreword by the Rt. Rev. William F. Lewis

Bishop of Olympia

A Testament of Turning is a series of acutal letters written by an intelligent, modern woman in search of God—a confession by one who at the beginning was an outright agnostic in the process of groping for reality. Writing with honesty and frankness out of the anguish and the joy of her search for God, the author gives us a rare inside view of the thoughts, emotions, and events that accompany her conversion. Her story begins in the midst of doubt and skepticism and finishes in conviction and faith; it begins with nothing and ends with all.

1662 AND ALL THAT

Commemorating the Third Centenary

of the Book of Common Prayer

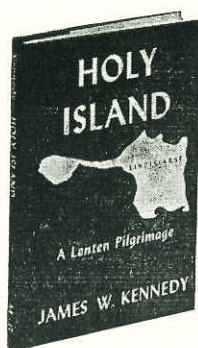

By The Rev. Dewi Morgan

To mark the tercentenary of the Book of Common Prayer, Dewi Morgan has written a popular history of the Prayer Book. 1662, the focal date, is taken by the author as the point to which many things led and from which many things came. With this in mind he describes the conditions and forces which made the Prayer Book what it is, and gives a lively account of its vicissitudes during the three hundred years of its life, not only in England, its birthplace, but also in the Anglican Communion, where it now has many daughters. $1.70

THE DIVINE DIMENSION

By Henry Thmas Dolan

THE IMAGE OF THE HEAVENLY

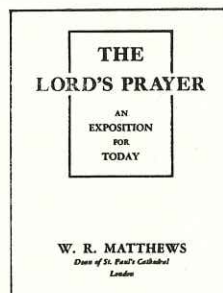

By G. C. Darton

In his book the author tries to show what the Incarnation meant to the first Christians, particularly as interpreted by St. Paul.

Using modern scientific, historical, psychological language, the author sketches for us the tremendous importance of the Atonement for mankind and for all Creation. The life, death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ have changed the whole quality of human life and cured man's estrangement from God.

The author is a lay theologian of the Church of England.

THE THIRD HOUR

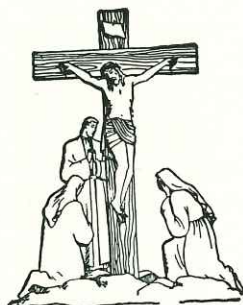

Meditations on the Cross

By The Rev. Ben A. Meginniss

"Lent is the season at which even the busiest layman, if he wants to be a better Christian, likes to read and ponder something that will help to guide his understanding and deepen his inner spiritual life. The author of this book has written a volume of unusual value for this Lenten experience.

"Mr. Meginniss writes with a clarity and simplicity that appeal to lay people because it leads them from their everyday experiences into the hushed quiet of those final hours in the earthly life of Jesus, in which the eternal values of His ministry and teaching are concentrated in the great drama of the Crucifixion."—C. C. J. Carpenter, Bishop of Alabama.

THE BEATITUDES AND MODERN LIFE

By The Rev. Harry Hutchison

What is the essence of personal Christianity? Using the Beatitudes as his starting point Dr. Hutchison answers this question in a series of short, stimulating meditations aptly illustrated from biblical and literary sources. These free interpretations center round the basic paradoxes, and the essential glory, or personal Christian experience, as summed up in the Beatitudes. They pinpoint in a dynamic and original way the real relevance of Christian belief amid the pressures and complexities of modern life. THE CHRISTIAN WAY

By The Very Rev. F. D. Gifford, Ph.D.

"In this little book, as in his other writings, Dean Gifford exhibits a rare gift of presenting the Faith simply. He is interested in practical Christianity. He wants to help the reader to get on with the daily, bread-and-butter living of the Faith. What are we supposed to be doing as Christians? How do we go about it? If this is your main problem with Christianity, the practical rather than the theoretical, you will find this book most helpful."

"SAFE-DRIVING" STICKER

I RESOLVE to examine my habits of driving on the highways in the light of Our Lord's commandment to love my neighbors as myself, to the end that acts of selfishness which endanger the lives of my fellow men may be eliminated in me, and that I may offer to God each time I drive a record of thoughtfulness and consideration for the safety of others.

—Adapted from a resolution by The Episcopal Churchmen of Maine.

Service Booklets for Good Friday

THE THREE HOUR SERVICE

Compiled by the Rt. Rev. Joseph S. Minnis, Bishop of Colorado

A service for the traditional Good Friday observance, following the customary form, with minor variations, and containing nine hymns, with music, some of which appear for the first time in any Good Friday service booklet. Size, 5" x 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ ", 21 pages.

25 cents each; 50 copies $11.00; 100 copies $20.00

THE SEVEN LAST WORDS

Compiled by the Rev. George A. A. Tocher

This form of service for the Three Hours' Devotion of Good Friday is just as proper and fitting in a small mission as in a large city parish. The compilation is from the Book of Common Prayer, the Holy Scriptures, and the authorized Hymnal. The Passion according to St. Mark is to be read as in this leaflet. Size, 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ " x 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", 24 pages.

25 cents each; 50 copies $11.00; 100 copies $20.00

"IN THE CROSS OF CHRIST I GLORY"

A Service of Meditation and Devotion for Good Friday

Compiled by the Rt. Rev. William R. Moody, Bishop of Lexington

The form of service of each meditation is as follows: Hymn, address on the Word, responsive prayer, collects, prayers, silent prayer, Act of Faith in unison, closing hymn. The hymns, of which there are 10, are given complete with music. Size, 5" x 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ ", 28 pages.

25 cents each; 50 copies $11.00; 100 copies $20.00

Good Friday

WE are all fond of keeping anniversaries. In our own families we do not easily forget a birthday, or the day on which some especially loved one died. Shall we keep these days in our memory and forget to hallow the day of our SAVIOUR'S Crucifixion? He died for me, each one may say; and this is an additional reason for keeping Good Friday holy. There will be Services in the Churches, and all should try to spend some part of the day in thinking of the Love of JESUS, and of the sins which nailed Him to the Cross.

GOOD FRIDAY POSTER No. 6

Size, 17 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 22 $\frac{1}{2}$ "

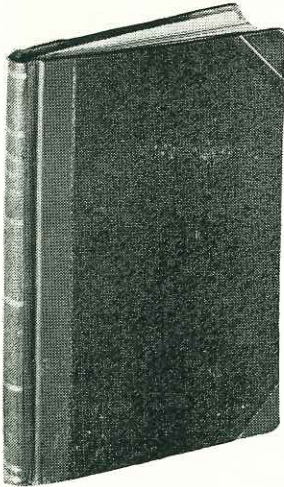

An attractive poster for drawing attention to the Good Friday services in your parish church. Printed in black with cross in purple on heavy white paper stock, it will command attention if displayed in the vestibule of the church.

(This Psalm is suitable for Divine Offices and from Passion Sunday until Holy Saturday, exclusive.)

P. Give sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

S. For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from thee: and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

P. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

S. And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

P. Why art thou so heavy, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

S. O put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

P. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

S. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

P. I will go unto the altar of God.

S. Even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

P. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

S. Who hath made for us earth and earth.

P. I confess to Almighty God, to blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, and to thee, my brother, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, by my fault, by my own fault, by my own most grievous fault. Therefore I beg blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, and thee my brother, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

S. Almighty God have mercy upon thee, forgive them thy sins, and bring thee to everlasting life.

P. Amen.

S. I confess to Almighty God, to blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, and to thee, father, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, by my fault, by my own fault, by my own most grievous fault. Therefore I beg blessed Mary Ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, and thee my brother, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

P. Almighty God have mercy upon you, forgive you your sins, and bring you to everlasting life.

S. Amen.

P. ✠ The Almighty and merciful Lord grant unto us pardon, absolution, and remission of all our sins.

S. Amen.

P. Will thou not, O God, turn again and quicken us?

S. That Thy people may rejoice in Thee.

P. O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.

S. And grant us Thy salvation.

P. O Lord, hear my prayer.

S. And let my cry come unto Thee.

P. The Lord be with you.

S. And with thy spirit.

P. Let us pray.

Minister. In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.
Answer. Amen.
Minister. From hence on, O God our Father;
Answer. And in Thine anger cease from us.
Minister. O God, make speed to save us.
Answer. O Lord, make haste to help us.

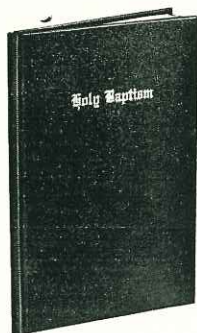

6. Thus shall we sing or read the Anthems, and after that we will sing or read the Psalms following.
Minister. Save us, O Lord.

WHY were the saints, saints? Because they were cheerful when it was difficult to be cheerful, patient when it was difficult to be patient; and because they pushed on when they wanted to stand still, and kept silent when they wanted to talk, and were agreeable when they wanted to be disagreeable. That was all. It was quite simple and always will be.

PASCHAL CANDLES

Paschal Candles must be ordered early —

Allow two weeks' delivery

A tall candle, blessed on Holy Saturday and lit at all liturgical services from Easter to Ascension Day. It symbolizes the resurrected Body of Christ, who is the Light of the World, and is solemnly extinguished at the end of the great forty days as the gospel is read recounting His Ascension. All candles 100% pure Beeswax, supplied with incising stylus, incense grains and paschal nails. Extra paschal candle nails and incense grains at (5 of each in a box) 25¢ per box.

BAPTISMAL CANDLES

An extremely attractive pure beeswax candle, ornamented in gold with self-fitting end. Design in red is symbolic of Baptism, and consists of a dove superimposed on a triangle above the Chi-Rho with alpha and omega Greek letters. This symbol is framed by grass-gold bands above and below. Packaged in a blue and white presentation box with spaces for data about the Baptism. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ " long.

CHRIST CANDLE

The basic idea embodied in the design of this beautiful Christ Candle is that as Christians, just as the growing plants, we are nurtured by the Grace received from Christ, represented by the central Chi-Rho design. The symbolic beauty of a burning Christ Candle gives added devotional significance to retreats, conferences, study groups, etc. Many people will find it appropriate to burn a Christ Candle at parties after baptism, confirmation, and weddings, during the Christmas season and at regular family meals. Beautifully decorated in seven rich colors on a white background, 14" tall and 3" diameter at base. An ideal gift item. $3.00

Books for Boys and Girls

A Beautiful Gift Book on the Life of Christ

WHO IS THIS

the Story of Jesus of Nazareth

by Mary Crawford

Illustrations by Antony Lewis

(Published in England)

J. B. Phillips has written the Preface in which he says: "The story reads smoothly and the impact of the utility style carries the reader forward with that freshness of interest which many of us have not felt since childhood . . . I do warmly commend this highly readable reconstruction of the Gospel records." Recommended for older children, parents and teachers who would like to give younger children some knowledge of the New Testament. $2.10

THE FIRST EASTER

No. 1602

This interesting book tells the Easter story as seen through the eyes of Joel, a young boy living at the time of Christ. Children will enjoy the story written in a clear, readable style. Fully illustrated throughout, with full color perma-glaze finish cover. 5½" x 6" 15 cents each

GLAD EASTER DAY

By Mary Edna Lloyd

Pictures by June Goldsborough

This book seeks to give a beginning interpretation of Easter for pre-school children. It tells in a simple way the Bible story of the Resurrection as it caused rejoicing in the homes of followers of Jesus as children heard the wonderful news, "He is risen". $1.25

HERE IS truly one of the most useful preaching tools money can buy . . . The minister's filing friend . . . SERMO MAGIC

WHAT IS Sermo-Magic?

Sermo-Magic is a scientifically conceived filing system designed by a minister for the ministry. The Sermo-Magic system is built on sound filing principles which enable a preacher to retain important information and ideas for sermons, both new and old. Completely portable, always ready for instant use, Sermo-Magic places the broadest range of sermon materials at your fingertips for every speaking occasion. Once organized and put to use, your Sermo-Magic will always be with you!

Closed View

HOW DOES Sermo-Magic WORK?

Sermo-Magic is easy to organize, efficient in use. Standard Sermo-Magic system is self-contained in a gray all-metal filing case, 12½" wide x 10" high x 9½" deep, complete with handle and lock.

1. The Sermo-Magic system begins by establishing the five major areas from which sermon topics are drawn, i.e., GOD, JESUS, KINGDOM OF GOD, MAN and WORLD. Each of these major sections appears on sturdy pressboard dividers with metal pre-printed tabs.

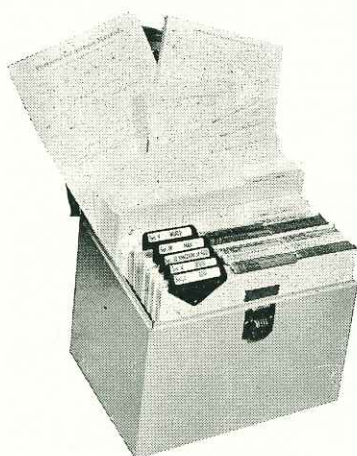

2. The five major areas are divided into 37 sub-classifications. Each sub-classification is color-coded for easy reference, and topics are printed on inserts for the celluloid-window tabs of letter-size, heavy duty file folders. These sub-classification files receive materials such as notes, clippings, articles, etc., taken from your readings or experience.

3. Included with each Sermo-Magic system is a year's supply (100) of portfolios for sermon materials. Each is printed on third-cut, third-position file folders with double strength tabs. After a sermon is completed, it is placed in one of these portfolios, together with all pertinent clippings, worksheets, notes and articles, and filed behind the correct sub-classification divider.

4. Finally . . . when placed in its proper place in the efficient Sermo-Magic filing system, every sermon is easily found and is ready to receive new material for use at some future time. You will be amazed and delighted to see how your previous sermons will take on new insight, new meaning as fresh materials are constantly added to them.

With SERMO-MAGIC your sermons grow as if by magic!

A NEW, AUTHENTIC DESIGN OF THE Canterbury Cross

based on a cross that is over 1200 years old

— New — For Men —

No. MB-33

Holiday, gift giving season approaching, the Morehouse-Barlow Company has produced a Canterbury Cross (illustrated above) for the men of the family. Now it is possible for all members of a family to wear this authentic reproduction of an ancient Christian symbol that is 1200 years old.

The Canterbury Cross comes in a SS PENDANT and SS BROOCH, for women; SCREW BACK SS PIN and, recently, a SS CROSS NECK-PIECE, for men.

History of the Canterbury Cross

After three years of research and planning, we are proud to present this new CANTERBURY CROSS, which is based upon a design that is 1200 years old. Our manufacturers have faithfully reproduced the cross which we have finally determined is authentic in every respect.

On the south wall of Canterbury Cathedral in England, there is a twelve-inch bronze cross, mounted on a stone plaque. The inscription on the plaque in Latin is translated as follows:

"This Cross is a copy of one made perhaps in Kent in the eighth century. It is set in stone taken from the walls of Christ Church, Canterbury. As the emblem of Salvation and the earnest of friendship it was given to this Cathedral by the Friends of Canterbury Cathedral A. D. 1935."

RANDALL THOMPSON: ALLELUIA, and

MASS of the HOLY SPIRIT

The excellence of Randall Thompson among contemporary American composers is well established in the music world. His familiar Alleluia is presented in this recording in its first performance (June 1940) by the Harvard-Radcliffe Choral Society. The Mass of the Holy Spirit, a work of major importance, using the Prayer Book text, is now available for the first time on this outstanding disc.

SAINTS, SIGNS, and SYMBOLS

By W. Ellwood Post

Foreword by

The Rev. Canon Edward N. West

Priced to Sell in Quantity

85 Cents

This new, 80 page book contains 347 illustrations of shields of the Evangelists, Apostles, and Saints, the Sacred Monograms, the symbols of the Holy Trinity and Persons of the Trinity, stars, fruits, flowers, and symbols of the Old Testament.

The text which describes each shield gives a brief note about the saint and in addition indicates the proper colors to be used for the coloring of each shield.

The contents of the book are as follows:

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1. SHIELD OF CHRIST THE KING
(frontispiece) | 7 SYMBOLS OF ST. MARY THE VIRGIN |
| 4 SHIELDS OF THE EVANGELISTS | 125 SHIELDS OF THE SAINTS |
| 13 SHIELDS OF THE APOSTLES | 60 DESIGNS OF CROSSES AND CRUCIFIXES |
| 9 SYMBOLS OF THE HOLY TRINITY | 7 DESIGNS OF STARS |
| 16 SYMBOLS OF PERSONS OF THE TRINITY | 32 SYMBOLS OF FRUITS AND FLOWERS |
| 17 SACRED MONOGRAMS | 40 SYMBOLS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT |
| 16 OTHER SYMBOLS, INCLUDING THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH FLAG AND SEAL | |

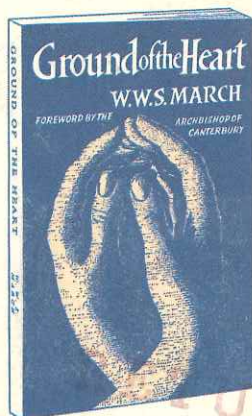

The book has been designed and illustrated by the author, who is well known as the designer and manufacturer of the plaster Shields of the Apostles and the Saints.

GROUND OF THE HEART DESIGN DIV.

A Commentary on the General Thanksgiving

By W.W.S. March

Vicar of Eastbourne, Canon of Chichester

Foreword by the Archbishop of Canterbury

Here is a book not unsuitable for use at a time of self-training such as Lent. Centered on and inspired by the GENERAL THANKSGIVING from the Book of Common Prayer, this provocative 119 page book is a must for every serious minded Christian.

Fr. March takes the GENERAL THANKSGIVING step by step, elaborating on the thanksgiving, praise, wonder, creation, pain, the inestimable love, a due sense of His mercies, etc.
